

Poll rates PalaceVIP - Number 1 Escort Agency for Integrity, in a world first.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PalaceVIP was this week voted the number ONE london escort agency for integrity by 188 of the 280 girls surveyed also making it the first escort agency in the world to actually conduct a poll of so many girls.

London, UK, March 5, 2013 – PalaceVIP, the Elite VIP London escort agency, today announced the results of a groundbreaking poll, participants voted them top for integrity and honesty by its girls. Never before in London has a escort agency conducted a poll asking its girls what they think. They are the first agency in history to conduct any kind of poll at all.

Michael accounts manager said today “PalaceVIP london escort agency achieved 2 milestones this week. The first was that we added our 280th girl to our portfolio. This makes us one of the biggest agencies in london with the widest selection, from younger babes all the way up to the most sophisticated playboy centerfold escorts you could dream to meet.”

Michael continued saying “PalaceVIP also decided to conduct a self assessment review this week to celebrate our milestone and we polled the 280 girls on what they thought about us. We realised that this actually set another first for an escort agency in the world. We are the first, in the history of escorting globally, to conduct a poll of what the girls think about the agency they work for. And to do it we used our new fully interactive website sms system and we asked the girls what they thought. 188 of the 280 girls or about 67% responded with rating us the number 1 in London for integrity and honesty.”

“Many of our competitors being Russian or Albanian types and as such employ the usual thuggery tactics when doing business, against us, the girls and even the clients, but in the long run we believe modern western values win”.. said Michael “so we conducted a poll, like any modern style organisation. Competitors never thought of doing that before because they dont have the same values for free expression and free choice that we do” claims Michael.
